

Oceanography

(CV/PVI/0871)

Characterization:

It is intended that this project that the students acquire knowledge about the measurement of physical factors to characterize the physical environment and try to relate it to observed biological phenomena, such as distribution of larvae and plankton distribution of adults posted on spatial and temporal terms.