Virtual Campus

(3.98.600.2)

Caracterization:

The Virtual Campus project at the University of Madeira aims to create a wireless network, integrated with existing structured network, so that the entire academic community has access to mobile, anywhere in the building members, content and services provided by the University.

Remarks:

Project completed